

Accessibility Wheelchair access is available both from the main entrance and from the back of the building from the car park via the Elizabeth Fry Room. We have a disabled toilet and an induction loop is installed in the George Fox Main Meeting Room.

Parking There is parking for users in our 25 space car park at the rear of the building on a first-come, first-served basis. We cannot accept responsibility for loss or damage to vehicles or their contents.

Lost Property We cannot be held responsible for loss or damage to personal property.

Personal Possessions When using the building please do not leave valuables unattended. We cannot be held responsible for theft or damage of any user's property.

Alcohol Policy No alcohol is allowed on the premises. There is no smoking on the premises.

Fire Exits It is a Health & Safety requirement that users know of the assembly procedure and the location of the emergency exits, and check that these are not blocked. Exits are marked and fire instructions are on display throughout the premises.

Group Leaders (ie: responsible persons) are responsible for passing on this information for the health and safety of their group, and for keeping a register of attendance which can be checked in the case of evacuation.

NB: The letting of the Meeting House to a group or organisation does not indicate endorsement of the aims and objectives of that group or organisation.

About us.....

The Society of Friends (Quakers) are active within the community locally, nationally and internationally. Many people who admire this work are not aware of the religious conviction underpinning it: Quakers believe that 'there is that of God in everyone' most taking the view that life is a continuing spiritual journey.

Our Meetings for Worship are on Sundays at 10.30am and are held in quiet stillness in which those who are moved to speak can do so. We also have an active children's group.

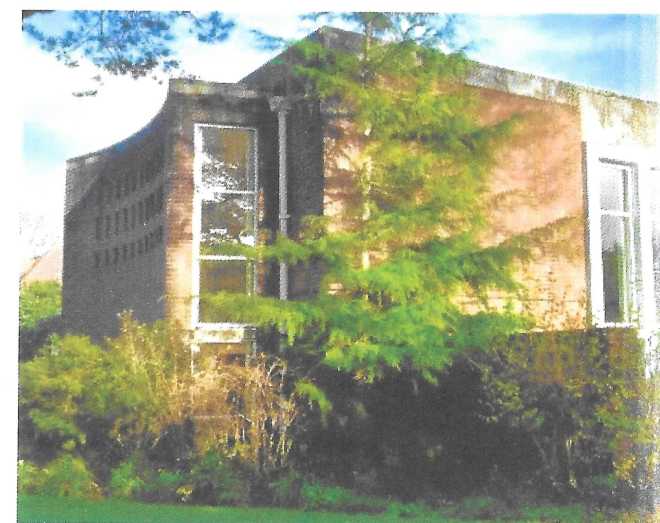

If you would like to know more about the Religious Society of Friends, you are welcome to take any of the leaflets in the reception area or to browse in the library. Do not hesitate to ask if you would like further information.

Above: The John Woolman room
This is a large open space taking small or large groups up to 60 persons maximum. It is equipped with tables and chairs if required and has a kitchen facility attached with a serving hatch.

Top: George Fox Hall
This is our largest space and with its polished parquet flooring is used by all group sizes (140 max.) including those holding dancing sessions and various other events. It also looks out on the lovely gardens.
Below: The Elizabeth Fry room
The smallest of our rooms, holding a maximum 10 persons and with its large table and chairs is an ideal meeting room, used for amongst other things small clubs and societies for discussions etc.

We see our premises as a valuable asset to be used for the benefit of the local community.
We hope that you will find Bournemouth Friends Meeting House a pleasant and friendly place in which to meet.
